2019 Harp Scholarship Application Form

Harp lessons are conducted with Sydney harpist, Verna Lee. Verna will come to Muswellbrook approximately once per month, and lessons will be conducted via Skype in between these face-to-face lessons. Applicants must be prepared to purchase a harp, or to attend practice sessions at UHCM.

The 2019 Inaugural Harp Scholarship will be awarded to two applicants, based on responses to these questions:

1. Why would you like to learn the harp?

2. What qualities do you possess that you think would be important in learning the harp?

3.

4. Please have your current music teacher (if applicable) complete the following, and sign it.

	Good	Fair	Poor
Reads treble and bass clef fluently
Shows commitment to regular practice
Works independently between lessons
Shows an understanding of musical features
